

PROTECTING YOUR GUESTS AND PROPERTY FROM BED BUGS

Bed bugs: two words that give anyone pause, especially hospitality operators and their guests.

It is nearly impossible to prevent these blood-sucking, hitchhiking pests from being introduced to your property. Once there, they hide in the smallest cracks and crevices, coming out at night to bite unsuspecting guests.

Your best defense is to have a bed bug plan in place. With Rentokil, you have more than a plan. You get a dedicated partner committed to a rapid response and ongoing protection that keeps working long after treatment, all backed by an unmatched industry-leading warranty.

BED BUG FACTS & FIGURES

An online review mentioning bed bugs will deter more than 50% of travelers from booking at a property.*

More than 1/4 of hotel operators reported having 6 or more bed bug issues in a 2-year period.*

Recent bed bug-related reviews can reduce room revenue by $23 - $38 per night.*
